Asstt. Secy. to the Govt. of Manipur.

Imphal, the 23rd December, 1954.

The following New years message received from the Secretary Indian Red Cross Society, are republished for general information.

G. H. Singh,
Assistant Secretary (Home).
to the Govt. of Manipur.

NEW YEARS MESSAGE FOR 1955 OF JUSTICE EMIL SANDSTREM CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS, LEAGUE OF RED CROSS SOCIETIES.

The year 1954 witnessed the 90th anniversary of the first National Red Cross Societies to be founded after Henri Dunant's inspired idea-the setting into action of a world-wide movement directed towards the alleviation of the suffering of war victims began, in 1864, to take form and shape. A year earlier-1863-the first Geneva Convention had been signed and the International Committee of the Red Cross founded. The Belgian Red Cross was the first National Society to appear on the scene: 72 others have since followed in its footsteps, and today constitute the organisation which was the aim of its founder.

If on this occasion we stop to ask ourselves to what extent the Red Cross has fulfilled the intentions of Henri Dunant, only one answer is possible: like everything human, this institution may have its faults, but its value, indeed its necessity, have been fully demonstrated.

What the Red Cross has done, i. e. the various National Societies, the International Committee of the Red Cross, and the League of Red Cross Societies, in times of war-which alas, have been only too frequent-and in war's aftermath, not to mention its no less important work between war's, are ample evidence that Henri Dunant's idea was no less than a prophetic vision. The volunteer workers of the Red Cross have carried out the task expected of them; they have shown the world how much may be achieved in the humanitarian field by men of goodwill, when love of neighbour is the guiding force, and efforts are coordinated by a suitable organisation.

With the opening up of new spheres of activity in time of peace and with the tragic increase in the number of natural disasters of recent years, especially the year just past, the importance of the Red Cross and its mission in the world are to-day greater than ever.

In paying tribute to all that was achieved by the founder of the movement and by our predecessors, we look also to the future, determined to carry out our duty to do our share of the work which lies ahead.

In this I know I am expressing what you yourselves feel. On the threshold of the New Year, I want to say "Thank you" to the Red Cross Societies and their members, to the friends of the Red Cross, for the efforts that have been made during the past year, and to give you my best wishes for a Happy New Year, bringing success in your work and the contentment that comes from the sense of having done one's duty.

PART IV

Imphal, the 7th June, 1955.

The following letter No. 7917-PH/6/5/55-2F-17-55 dated the 6th May, 1955 received from the Director of Health Services, Orissa, Bhubaneswar, addressed to the Directors of Health Services of Part 'A' States and Delhi is published for general information.

G. H. Singh,
Asstt. Secretary (Home) to the Govt. of Manipur.

Subject:— CAR FESTIVALS OF 1955.

The Car festivals of Lord Jaganath at Puri will be celebrated from the 5th of June, 1955 and will continue till the 4th of July, 1955. This festival, as usual, will attract large numbers of pilgrims from all over India. It is observed that epidemics of cholera break out either during or after the festival. As sporadic cases of cholera are being reported from some parts of Orissa and also from neighbouring States, particularly from bordering States, it is felt that the intending pilgrims should be advised through newspapers and other sources to get themselves protected against cholera sufficiently in advance.

Adequate medical and public health arrangements are being undertaken in this State on the occasion but as mentioned before, it is desirable that the pilgrims, intending to visit Puri from your State should get themselves inoculated and obtain necessary inoculation certificate, as otherwise they will not be allowed to enter into the festival areas without such inoculation certificate. Temporary regulations making cholera inoculation compulsory in the festival area under the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897 from 15th of April 1955 to 15th July, 1955 are being enforced. Holders of certificates of inoculation issued after 1-4-55 will however not be required to take further inoculation in the festival area.

Imphal, the 15th June, 1955.

Sealed tenders are hereby invited for the supply of ten snoothing irons (steel) of ordinary size for the Manipur Police (unarmed branch).

Tenders addressed to the undersigned together with samples will be received in the Police Office during office hours upto 27-6-55.

It is not obligatory for the undersigned to accept the lowest or any tender.

U. C. Malhoutra, I.P.S.

PRESS NOTE.

INVITATION OF COMPENSATION APPLICATIONS

Last date for filing September 26, 1955.

The Central Government have published a notification in the Gazette of India dated June 27, 1955 under Section 4 of the Displaced Persons (Compensation and Rehabilitation) Act, 1954 inviting applications for compensation from all those displaced persons with verified claims for immovable property left in West Pakistan, who have not applied before under any of the priority categories or otherwise.

Applications for compensation should be preferred in duplicate on the prescribed form and handed over or sent to the Settlement Officer within whose jurisdiction the applicant resides, or carries on business or works for gain. The prescribed forms are on sale at all Settlement Offices under the Central Ministry of Rehabilitation, and at Post Offices. In addition to the various documents which form part of the applications, every claimant should put in an affidavit in the form specified under the rules and attested by a Magistrate or an Oaths Commissioner or by any other officer competent to administer an oath, and should also send three passport size photographs and a certified copy of the claim assessment order. Applicants are required to give full details of loans, etc. owing from them as also arrears of rent. Under the rules, severe penalties are prescribed for false information given in regard to these public dues.

Those claimants who have already sent in their applications for compensation in the priority categories or in connection with the purchase of property, or the granting of loans, or otherwise, need not apply again.

In those cases where the original claimant has died and successors in interest now wish to put in applications for compensation, they should, in addition to the documents comprising the application form, also submit particulars of the date and place of death of the deceased claimant with a duly certified death certificate and give particulars of heirs and relatives of the deceased and a true copy of the will or other document on which they rely. Such successors in interest will also have to swear an affidavit in support of their statements.

R. F. A. loanes should obtain a certificate from the Rehabilitation Finance Administration regarding the total amount due from them as principal and interest as on June 30, 1955, and send this certificate along with their compensation applications.

No. F/DPC/70/53.—The following draft announcement is published for general information :—

T. Kipgen,
Secretary to the Govt. of Manipur.

DRAFT ANNOUNCEMENT

The Central Social Welfare Board will consider early in November applications for grants from voluntary institutions for the period November, 1955 to March, 1956. Institutions may send in their applications to this office immediately in any case not later than 20th August, 1955 on the prescribed proforma, copies of which can be obtained from this office. The original copy with a copy should be sent to this office and another advance copy to the Central Social Welfare Board, 10--Kitchner Road, Diplomatic Enclave, New Delhi. The following conditions may be carefully noted by institutions intending to make applications.

(1) An application will not be considered from any institution, which has already received a grant for a period extending upto the 31st March, 1956.

(2) Applications for starting new institutions in areas now included in a Welfare Extension Project will not be considered, except from institutions which have already existed in that area before the starting of that project.

(3) Every institution should give complete information about its management, that is, whether it is run by an individual or by a Managing Committee elected or non-elected. Full details of existing assets and collections already made by voluntary effort should be furnished.

(4) Every application should give brief details of the scheme for which the grant will be utilised, as also the institution's normal expenditure on those items and its matching contribution.

In cases where the scheme is the maintenance of orphanage or a home for destitute women, etc., or for the free distribution of milk or medicines, the number of existing inmates or beneficiaries and the additional number to be benefitted by grant should be clearly indicated.

(5) Branches of all India and regional organisations should be asked to send their applications to the Central Office of their organisation. The Central Office of the organisation should send the original application with its recommendation to the State Board and an advance copy for information to the Central Board, also with its recommendation.

*Note :—*The statement of income and expenditure furnished by a Branch should relate only to its own income and expenditure, and not to the whole organisation. This applies also in cases where the same institution has a number of separate Branches in different places.

(6) Since the grant will be only for a period of 6 six months, institutions should frame their estimates for this period only and ask for only so much as they can spend by the end of March, 1956. No extension of the period will be granted subsequently.

(7) A request for a grant for each purpose should indicate the total requirements of the institution for the period in question for that purpose and the amount which will be met from its own resources. In the case of requests for grants for new buildings, it should be indicated whether the institution has legal title to the land on which the building is proposed to be constructed. Similarly, in the case of requests for grants for additions or alternations to buildings, it should be clearly indicated whether the institution has legal title to the land and existing building.

A PAID HOLIDAY.

In pursuance of instructions issued by the Central Ministry of Labour on previous anniversaries of Independence Day, Workers were permitted to participate in the August 15th celebrations without being made to suffer any loss in wages.

A similar directive has been issued this year by the Govt. of India to their officers in charge of industrial undertakings and they hope that other employers also will co-operate with them by declaring this national day as a paid holiday.

In view of the great importance of the occasion, Government believe that many industrial undertakings have already prescribed August 15th as one of the regular holidays but where this has not been done, they hope that the employers will treat the day an additional paid holiday and not as a substituted holiday.

NOTIFICATION.

Dated Shillong, the 5th September, 1955.

Subject :—Verification by the Treasury Officer of countersignature on the Traveling allowance claim of Gazetted Government servant for the period prior to his transfer to the payment of a new Treasury Officer.

No. TM./4/55/26.—A reference is invited to rule 177 of the Central Treasury Rule Vol-I, which inter-alia imposes an obligation on the Treasury Officer to verify the genuineness of the countersignature of the Controlling Officer on the Traveling allowance claims of a gazetted Officer's bill. A question has been raised as to how a Treasury Officer is to satisfy himself of the genuineness of the countersignature of the Controlling Officer in respect of a claim prior to the transfer of the officer to his payment. As the matter stands at present, no provision exists in the Treasury Rules providing for the action to be taken by the new Treasury Officer in this regard. To meet this lacuna in the rules, it has been decided that all the controlling Officers empowered to countersign bills should send their specimen signatures to all the Treasury Officers duly attested by the Treasury Officer of the district, in which they draw bills so that the new Treasury Officer may not have any difficulty to verify the countersignature.

The Controlling Officers (Central) and all the Treasury and Sub-Treasury Officers in Assam, Tripura and Manipur will please see that the procedure detailed above in this regard is strictly followed.

Amitabha Ghosh,
Deputy Accountant General (II), Assam.

Subject :—Import of Films made from transparent cellulose or Viscacella, Royasine, Transparent cellulose wrapping and other transparent paper (Sr. No. 122(vii)/V.

Attention of the importers is invited to remark (ii) against Sr. No. 122(vii)/V in Section II of the current Red Book, from which it will be seen that quota licences are subject to a condition that imports to the extent of half the value thereof should be completed within three months of the date of issue.

2. Certain representations have been made that this condition operates to the hardship of Established Importers holding small value quota licences. The matter has been considered and it has been decided that quota licences issued to Established Importers upto a value of Rs. 1,000/- will be exempt from the operation of the condition mentioned in remark (ii) against S. No. 122(vii)/V in Section II of the current Red Book. It will thus be open to Established Importers with quota licences upto Rs. 1,000/- to effect imports against such licences at any time within the period of validity of the licences.

With a view to know the existing grass contents of the grass mahals, the intending contractors or consumers may visit and inspect the grass mahals for which they want to bid in the auction. When the auction is conducted and the price of a particular grass mahal is fixed, no future complaint for reduction in the sale price, on grounds of paucity of grass contents or any other cause, will be considered.

Any one who wishes to lodge a reasonable complaint, on a particular grass mahal, he should apply to the Forest Department some days earlier than the auction takes place.

SUB:-Income-tax—Deduction from salaries during 1955-56.

SIR,

I am directed to invite a reference to this Ministry's letter C. No. 48 (13) I.T./53, dated the 4th May, 1953, and C. No. 48 (5)-I. T./54, dated the 24th March, 1954 and 15th May 1954 on the subject of deduction of income-tax from salaries paid during the year 1953-54. The Finance Act, 1955, has made certain changes in the rates and allowances, in so far as they relate to income under the head "Salaries":—

(a) The new rates of income-tax are as follows :

	Rate	Surcharge
On the first Rs. 1,000/- of total income in the case of an unmarried person and on the first Rs 2,000/- of total income in the case of a married person.	Nil	Nil
On the next Rs. 4,000/- of total income in the case of an unmarried person and on the next Rs. 3,000/- of total income in the case of a married person.	Nine pies in the rupee.	One-twentieth of the rate specified in the preceding column.
On the next Rs. 2,500/- of total income.	One anna and nine pies in the rupee.	Do.
On the next Rs. 2,500/- of total income.	Two annas and three pies in the rupee.	Do.
On the next Rs. 5,000/- of total income.	Three annas and three pies in the rupee.	Do.
On the balance of total income.	Four annas in the rupee.	Do.

These rates are subject to the conditions that :—

- (i) no income-tax shall be payable on a total income, which, before deduction of the allowance for earned income, does not exceed Rs. 4,200 ;
- (ii) the income-tax payable shall in no case exceed half the amount by which the total income (before deduction of the said allowance for earned income) exceeds Rs. 4,200 ;
- (iii) the income-tax payable on the total income as reduced by the allowance for earned income shall not exceed either—

- (a) a sum bearing to half the amount by which the total income (before deduction of the allowance for earned income) exceeds Rs. 4,200/- the same proportion as such reduced total income bears to the unreduced total income; or
- (b) the income-tax payable on the income so reduced at the rates specified above whichever is less;
- (iv) (a) no surcharge shall be payable on a total income, which before deduction of the allowance, if any, for earned income, does not exceed the limit Rs. 7,200;
- (b) the surcharge payable shall in no case exceed half the amount by which the total income (before deduction of the said allowance, if any, for earned income) exceeds the said limit
- (b) The allowance for "earned income" on incomes upto Rs. 25,000/- is one-fifth of such earned income, subject to a maximum of Rs. 4,000. In the case of earned income exceeding Rs. 25,000/-, the earned income allowance is to be computed by deducting from Rs. 4,000, one fifth of the amount by which the earned income exceeds Rs. 25,000/-.
- (c) The rebate of income-tax on account of life insurance premia, provident fund contributions etc, is now admissible up to a maximum of one fifth of the total income, before deduction of the allowance for earned income or Rs. 8,000 whichever is less. In the case of insurance premium the amount on which rebate is admissible shall not exceed 10% of the actual capital sum assured.
- (d) No abatement is to be allowed by the persons responsible for paying the salary in respect of any donations for charitable purposes, which are exempt under section 15B.

2. The new rates of super-tax are as below :—

	Rate	Surcharge
	Nil	Nil
1. On the first Rs. 20,000 of total income.	Nil	Nil
2. On the next Rs. 5,000 of total income.	One anna in the rupee.	One-twentieth of the rate specified in the preceding column.
3. On the next Rs. 15,000 of total income.	Three annas in the rupee.	Do
4. On the next Rs. 10,000 of total income.	Five annas in the rupee.	Do.
5. On the next Rs. 10,000 of total income.	Six annas in the rupee.	One-twentieth of the rate specified in the preceding column.
6. On the next Rs. 20,000 of total income.	Seven annas in the rupee.	Do.
7. On the next Rs. 20,000 of total income.	Eight annas in the rupee.	Do.
8. On the next Rs. 50,000 of total income.	Nine anna in the rupee.	Do.
9. On the balance of total income.	Nine and a half annas in the rupee.	Do.

The distinction between earned and unearned income is not applicable to super-tax computations.

3. The following examples illustrate the calculation of Income-tax and super-tax where due.
Example I.

Pay and allowances for the year.	Rs. 4,220
Here condition No. (iii) mentioned in para 1 comes into operation.
A. Tax payable on the basis of (iii) (a) above—
Total income (whole of which is earned income, being chargeable as "salaries")	4,220
Deduct allowance for earned income (one-fifth of 4,220)	844
Reduced total income	3,376

Half the excess over Rs. 4200 = $20 \div 2 = 10$

The proportionate tax payable on Rs. 3,376 would be Rs. $\frac{10 \times 3,376}{4,220} = \text{Rs. } 8.$

Tax payable on the basis of (iii) (b) above—

B (i) In the case of a married person

Rs. A. P.

On the first Rs. 2,000 Nil.
On the next Rs. 1,376 (Rs. 3376-2000) at 9 pies in the rupee. 64 8 0

(ii) In the case of an unmarried person

On the first Rs. 1,000 Nil
On the next Rs. 2,376 (Rs. 3376-1000) at 9 pies per rupee 111 6 0
(No surcharge is leviable in the case).

In accordance with the condition quoted above, the income-tax actually recoverable in cases of both married and unmarried persons is on the basis of "A" which works out to a lower figure, viz Rs. 8 for the whole year.

The maximum rebate of income-tax for insurance premia, Provident Fund contributions etc., in the above example would be on Rs. 844 i.e., one fifth of Rs. 4,220.

The rebate works out at Rs. $\frac{8 \times 844}{3376} = \text{Rs. } 2 \ 0 \ 0$

so that the net tax payable is Rs. 6-0-0.

Example II

Pay and allowances for the year	Rs. 4,400
Deduct allowances for earned income (one fifth)	880
Reduced total income	Rs. 3,520

A. Tax on the basis of (iii) (a)—

Half the excess over Rs. 4,200 ($4400 - 4200$) = $200 \div 2 = 100.$

Proportionate tax payable on Rs. 3,520 would be Rs. $\frac{100 \times 3,520}{4,400} = \text{Rs. } 80.$

Tax on the basis of (iii) (b)—

B. (i) In the case of a married person—

Rs. A. P.

On the first Rs. 2,000 Nil.
On the next Rs. 1,520 (Rs. 3520-2000) at 9 pies in the rupee . . . 71 4 0

(ii) In the case of an unmarried person—

On the first Rs. 1,000 Nil.
On the next Rs. 2,520 (Rs. 3,520-1000) at 9 pies in the rupee . . . 118 2 0
(No surcharge is leviable in this case).

In this case the tax actually recoverable is Rs. 71-4-0 [i.e., on the basis of B (i)] in the case of a married person and Rs. 80 (i.e., on the basis of 'A') in the case of an unmarried person.

On incomes exceeding Rs. 4,200 but not exceeding Rs. 4,375 in the cases of married persons and Rs. 4,505 in the cases of unmarried persons the tax on the basis of (A) works out to a lower figure and should be adopted while on income exceeding Rs. 4,375 in the case of married persons and Rs. 4,505 in the case of unmarried persons, tax should be calculated on the basis section B (i) and B (ii) respectively.

Example III

	Rs.	Rs.
Monthly pay and allowances	600
Yearly income	7,200
Insurance Premia and Provident Fund Contributions	2,000
Total Income		7,200
Less allowance for earned income (one fifth)		1,440
Reduced total income		5,760

(i) In the case of a married person.

	Rate	Income-tax
On the first Rs. 2,000	Nil.	Nil.
On the next Rs. 3,000	Nine pies in the rupee.	140 10 0
On the next Rs. 760	One anna and nine pies in the rupee.	83 2 0
5,760	Total tax	223 12 0

No surcharge is leviable.

(ii) In the case of an unmarried person.

	Rate	Income-tax
On the first Rs. 1,000	Nil.	Nil.
On the next Rs. 4,000	Nine pies in the rupee.	187 8 0
On the next Rs. 760	One anna and nine pies in the rupee.	83 2 0
5,760	Total tax,	270 10 0

No surcharge is leviable.

The total income on which rebate of income-tax and income-tax surcharge in respect of insurance premia, provident fund contributions etc. is admissible is restricted to one fifth of the total income (before deduction of allowance for earned income). In this example, rebate can, therefore, be given in respect of insurance premia, etc., upto a maximum of Rs. 1,440 (one fifth of Rs. 7,200). The maximum rebate works out to Rs. 55-15-0 and 67-10-0 according as the person is married or unmarried as indicated below:

In the case of a married person.

223-12 × 1440	Rs.
5,760	55 15 0

Net tax payable for the year	167 13 0
Tax to be deducted monthly from salary	14 0 0

In the case of an unmarried person.

270-10 × 1440	Rs.
5,760	67 10 0

Net tax payable for the year	203 0 0
Tax to be deducted from salary every month	16 15 0

(In the last month Rs. 16-11-0 only should be recovered).

Note. It will be noticed from the examples IB, IIB, and III that the income-tax in the case of an unmarried person is Rs. 46-14-0 more than in the case of a married person in receipt of the same income. In the latter examples income-tax in the case of married persons only has been computed and the gross tax (i.e., before giving any rebate) in the case of unmarried persons may be arrived at by adding Rs. 46-14-0 to the amount of Income-tax computed in the case of married persons. The unmarried persons will be entitled to correspondingly higher abatement account of insurance premium, provident fund contribution etc.

Example IV.

	Rs.	Rs.
Monthly pay and allowances	602
Yearly income	7,224
Insurance premia and Provident fund contributions	2,000
Total income		7,224
Less allowance for earned income (one-fifth)		1,445
Reduced total income		5,779

In the case of a married person.

		Rate	Income-tax

On the next Rs.	3,000	9 pies per rupee	140	10	0
On the next Rs.	779	-/1/9 pies per rupee	85	3	0
	5,779	Income Tax	225	13	0
Surcharge at one twentieth of income tax			11	5	0
Total tax			237	2	0

[In case the income had been below Rs. 7222 but above Rs. 7,200 surcharge would have been limited to one twentieth of half the excess over Rs. 7,200].

The total income on which rebate of income-tax and income-tax surcharge in respect of insurance premia, provident fund contributions is admissible is limited to Rs. 1,445 (one fifth of Rs. 7,224). The maximum rebate works out at :

			Rs.
Income-tax	$225-13 \times 1445$	Income-tax	56	7	0
Surcharge	$11-5 \times 1445$	Surcharge	2	13	0

		Surcharge	8	8	0
			177	14	0
Tax to be deducted from salary every month		Income-tax	14	2	0
		Surcharge	0	11	0

Note : In the case of an unmarried person the amount of income-tax payable would increase by Rs. 46-14-0 and that of surcharge on income-tax by 1/20th of this amount. The amount of abatement of income-tax and income-tax surcharge in respect of provident fund contributions, life insurance premia, etc. would be proportionately higher.

GOVERNMENT OF MANIPUR.

Orders by the Chief Commissioner.

N O T I F I C A T I O N.

Dated Shillong, the 1st October, 1955.

No. TM/10/55/31.—It is notified for information and guidance of all Treasury Officers and Sub-Treasury Officers in Assam, Tripura and Manipur that the remitters' applications relative to drawings effected by the Treasuries and Sub-Treasuries do not in most cases contain the serial number and the actual date of issue of drafts. The absence of these essential particulars in the applications makes their identification with the relative paid drafts very difficult on the part of the Reserve Bank of India, Central Accounts Section, Calcutta. Consequently it gives rise to avoidable correspondence with the Drawing Officers. It is therefore, requested that all necessary particulars should invariably be furnished in the applications in the space provided for in the relative forms to avoid the difficulties so long experienced by the Reserve Bank of India.

S. S. Lal,

Deputy Accountant General (I), Assam.

42. All switches cut-outs and resistances, lights, fans and all other electrical appliance in the enclosure shall be mounted on basis of fire-resisting material and where practicable shall have strong metallic covers enclosing all live parts. Switch covers shall be arranged in such a way that they cannot be opened unless the switch is in the 'off' position.
43. All metal work supporting or protecting electric supply lines shall be efficiently earthed by two separate and distinct connections with the earth. The resistances of the connections with the earth shall not exceed one ohm and all earthing leads shall run in such a manner that the course of each may be readily traced. Where earthing leads pass through walls or are laid in floors they shall be suitably protected.
44. Resistances shall be made entirely of fire-resisting material and shall be so constructed and maintained that no coil or other parts shall at any time become unduly heated; that is, they shall not become so heated that a piece of paper placed in contact with any part of the resistance would readily ignite. All resistances, with the exception of a resistance for regulating purposes, shall be placed outside the enclosure and in a part of the building to which the public are not admitted.

47. Electrical accumulators, unless installed in rooms or compartments specially reserved therefore, shall be completely enclosed together with the terminals in substantial casings constructed of or lined with insulating and fire-resisting material. Accumulators in cells or containers of celluloid shall not be installed, stored or used.
48. Electric heaters or radiators shall not be used in any part of the building to which the public are admitted except with the consent of the licensing authority and subject to such conditions as he may prescribe.

No. 96.

HINTS ON DETECTING COUNTERFEITS OF PURE NICKEL COINS.

With the introduction of Pure Nickel series of coins in 1946, comprising Rupees, 1/2 Rupees and 1/4 Rupees, the design of these coins was changed; the sizes and standard weights of the coins remaining the same as in previous issues, except in the case of the Rupee, which became smaller in diameter and consequently thicker, the weight remaining the same at 180 grains troy—the 1/2 Rupees and 1/4 Rupees weighting 90 grains and 45 grains respectively. Pure Nickel rupees were first issued bearing the date 1947 and 1/2 Rupees and 1/4 Rupees bearing the date 1946. Pure Nickel rupees of 1947 and 1/2 rupees and 1/4 rupees of 1946 and 1947 bore on their Reverse the Tiger and on the Obverse the effigy of King George VI. No coins bearing the date 1948 and 1949 were minted and issued by the Indian Mints. Pure Nickel Rupees, 1/2 Rupees and 1/4 Rupees of 1950 and on-wards bear on their obverse the Asoka Pillar and on the reverse the Ears of coin design. In the Pure Nickel series of coins the rupees are security edged, whilst the 1/2 and 1/4 rupees bear a plain milling.

Adoption of Pure Nickel in itself is a safeguard against counterfeiting. One of the chief advantage lies in the difficulties of production. Pure Nickel cannot readily be used for the making of small sand castings having a good surface finish. As the chief method of the Counterfeiter is to cast individual coins in sand or metal moulds, he must employ some alternative medium which can readily be detected. A distinctive feature of nickel is that it is magnetic, and no other metal which might conceivably be considered suitable for coinage has this property. Therefore a magnet can be used as a test of the genuineness of pure nickel coins. Further more pure nickel is particularly free from tarnishing, any dirt or finger marks can be wiped clean with a dry rag.

Two kinds of counterfeits of pure nickel coins are found viz. cast and struck, or a combination of the two.

Cast counterfeits are the most easily made, and therefore are more usually found. The mould into which the molten metal is poured, may be made of sand, clay, powdered burnt brick, plaster of paris or similar materials and the impression on the mould is taken from a genuine coin. The mould has a small hole or 'gate' cut in the rim, through which the molten metal is poured. The metal which fills this hole, and solidifies with the rest of the casting, forms a projection on the rim of the cast coin, which must be cut off to enable the rim at this point to be finished and milled by hand, and the security groove put in. Signs of this hand finishing can usually be detected on the rim of cast counterfeits.

Struck counterfeits are made by striking or pressing blanks between dies of hard metal, the designs of which are engraved by hand, or from dies of softer metal on which the impressions can be transferred from a genuine coin. The blanks, thus struck, may have been first cast or cut from sheet metal.

Counterfeits are more easily detected if compared with one or more genuine coins of the same design, using a magnifying glass if necessary. A suspicious coin may also be weighed against a genuine coin showing the same amount of wear, since most counterfeits which do not contain much lead are lighter than genuine coins.

The only disadvantage of pure nickel coins is that they have no ring, and for centuries Indians have been accustomed to judge the genuineness of the silver coins by listening for the clear ring of high touch silver coins. There is no doubt that the ringing test diminished in importance when quaternary alloy coins with 50% silver were introduced. These coins give a much higher and sharper ring than their high touch predecessors. The cumbness of pure nickel coins however is compensated for by their magnetic properties and any small boy equipped with a cheap magnet can easily distinguish a counterfeit from a genuine coin.

The thickness of a genuine coin is uniform whilst counterfeits are sometimes thicker at one side than at the other, and are often slightly bent or distorted, so that they will not lie evenly between two other coins.

The rim of genuine pure nickel Rupees, 1/2 Rupees and 1/4 Rupees are regularly milled and all round with straight indentations at right angles to the faces, but pure nickel rupees have also a security device in the centre of the milled edge. This device consists of a shallow groove with a design consisting of a chain of small beads in relief in two sections separated by blank spaces. In counterfeits of these coins the milling is often at a slant, the spaces between the indentations irregular and the indentations themselves uneven or broken. The milling can best be examined by placing the suspected coin between two good coins of the same description, when defects can readily be detected.

Coins should not be classed as counterfeits solely on account of bad milling, since genuine coins are found with worn milling, with portions soldered for use as ornaments or with the edges filled or touched up. Coins of which the milling is good however, are seldom counterfeits.

The heads which appear in relief, inside the security groove on the Rupee coins, should be clear cut, well defined, and uniform in size and shape. The blank portions of the groove should be equal in length. In counterfeits, the beads are often badly shaped and uneven in size, the intervening spaces being sometimes filled with metal. The blank portions usually show signs of metal having been scooped out by hand, resulting the broken milling on either side of the blank portion, and possibly a wider groove in genuine coins.

The devices on the obverse and reverse should be clear and well defined, especially in outline. Blurred lines or edges and an imperfect impression [unless plainly due to wear and tear] are suspicious. Letters and figures of the inscription should be clear well defined and rounded. Blurred, irregular, or double lines are to be regarded with suspicion. In some counterfeits the letters are much thinner than on genuine coins.

The table or plain surface of the coin (i. e. the portion not occupied by any design or inscription) should be smooth, even and free from blemish. An uneven, spotted or rough surface with irregular masses of metal thereon is suspicious.

All cast coins are counterfeits. In a cast coin the surface is usually rough, or pitted with minute holes. The rim is usually defective, particularly at the 'gate' or point where the metal was poured into the mould.

In the case of struck counterfeits, it is not unusual to find several with identical marks or defects, having been struck from the same dies. The milling is usually very irregular. In the case of cast counterfeits, the milling and the design in the groove are often evenly spaced, except at the 'gate' where the surplus metal has been removed.

Genuine coins which have suffered by the action of chemicals or fire may have rough and discoloured surfaces though they are suspicious coins should be sent to one of the Mints for examination.

Counterfeits made from a mixture of tin and lead are soft and easily bent, and will sometimes emit a crackling noise when bent between the fingers while being held close to the ear.

The above hints are also helpful in detecting counterfeits of Cupro Nickel Coins and Bronze Coins of the years 1946 and onwards, except that these coins are non-magnetic and their designs were altered in the year 1950.

The two anna, one anna and half anna cupro-nickel coins of 1950 and onwards bear the Asoka Pillar on the obverse and the Asoka Bull on the reverse. Their weights, sizes and shapes remaining the same as that of their predecessors. The Bronze single pice of 1950 bears the Asoka Pillar on the obverse and the Asoka Horse on the reverse. It is circular in shape and weighs of 60 grains. From 1951 onwards the bronze single pice weighs 45 grains, all other features remaining the same as for 1950 except that the coins of 1951 and onwards are thinner than those of 1950, due to the reduction in weight.

However, if suitable candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes are not available for appointment to vacancies reserved for that community, the vacancies should be treated as reserved for Scheduled Tribes and vice versa, in accordance with the orders contained in this Ministry's Office Memorandum No. 42/32/53-NGS(SCT), dated the 7th December 1954, a copy of which was forwarded to the State Government with the late Ministry of States letter No. 33(21)-S/54, dated the 17th December, 1954.

207. Procedure in inquiries preparatory to commitment.—In every inquiry before a Magistrate where the case is triable exclusively by a Court of Session or High Court, or, in the opinion of the Magistrate, ought to be tried by such Court, the Magistrate shall,—

(b) in any other proceeding, follow the procedure specified in the other provisions of this Chapter.

207A. Procedure to be adopted in proceedings instituted on police report.—(1) When, in any proceeding instituted on a police report, the Magistrate receives the report forwarded under section 173, he shall, for the purpose of holding an inquiry under this section, fix a date which shall be a date not later than fourteen days from the date of the receipt of the report, unless the Magistrate, for reasons to be recorded fixes any later date

(2) If, at any time before such date, the officer conducting the prosecution applies to the Magistrate to issue a process to compel the attendance of any witness or the production of any document or thing, the Magistrate shall issue such process unless, for reasons to be recorded, he deems it unnecessary to do so.

(3) At the commencement of the inquiry, the Magistrate shall, when the accused appears or is brought before him, satisfy himself that the documents referred to in section 173 have been furnished to the accused and if he finds that the accused has not been furnished with such documents or any of them, he shall cause the same to be so furnished.

(4) The Magistrate shall then proceed to take the evidence of such persons, if any, as may be produced by the prosecution as witnesses to the actual commission of the offence alleged ; and if the Magistrate is of opinion that it is necessary in the interests of justice to take the evidence of any one or more of the other witnesses for the prosecution, he may take such evidence also.

(5) The accused shall be at liberty to cross-examine the witnesses examined under sub-section (4), and in such case, the prosecutor may re-examine them.

(6) When the evidence referred to in sub-section (4) has been taken and the Magistrate has considered all the documents referred to in section 173 and has, if necessary, examined the accused for the purpose of enabling him to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him and given the prosecution and the accused an opportunity of being heard, such Magistrate shall, if he is of opinion that such evidence and documents disclose no grounds for committing the accused person for trial, record his reasons and discharge him, unless it appears to the Magistrate that such person should be tried before himself or some other Magistrate, in which case he shall proceed accordingly.

(7) When, upon such evidence being taken, such documents being considered, such examination (if any) being made and the prosecution and the accused being given an opportunity of being heard, the Magistrate is of opinion that the accused should be committed for trial, he shall frame a charge under his hand, declaring with what offence the accused is charged.

(9) The accused shall be required at once to give in, orally or in writing, a list of the persons, if any, whom he wishes to be summoned to give evidence on his trial.

Provided that the Magistrate may, in his discretion, allow the accused to give in his list or any further list of witnesses at a subsequent time ; and, where the accused is committed for trial before the High Court, nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to preclude the accused from giving, at any time before his trial, to the Clerk of the State a further list of the persons whom he wishes to be summoned to give evidence on such trial.

(10) When the accused, on being required to give in a list under sub-section (9), has declined to do so, or when he has given in such list, the Magistrate may make an order committing the accused for trial by the High Court or the Court of Session, as the case may be, and shall also record briefly the reasons for such commitment.

Provided that where the accused has been committed to the High Court, the Magistrate may, in his discretion leave such witnesses to be summoned by the Clerk of the State and such witnesses may be summoned accordingly :

Provided also that if the Magistrate thinks that any witness is included in the list for the purpose of vexation or delay or of defeating the ends of justice, the Magistrate may require the accused to satisfy him that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the evidence of such witness is material, and if he is not so satisfied, may refuse to summon the witness (recording his reasons for such refusal), or may before summoning him require such sum to be deposited as such Magistrate thinks necessary to defray the expense of obtaining the attendance of the witness and all other proper expenses.

(12) Witnesses for the prosecution, whose attendance before the Court of Session or High Court is necessary and who appear before the Magistrate, shall execute before him bonds binding themselves to be in attendance when called upon by the Court of Session or High Court to give evidence.

(13) If any witness refuses to attend before the Court of Session or High Court, or execute the bond above directed, the Magistrate may detain him in custody until he executes such bond or until his attendance at the Court of Session or High Court is required when the Magistrate shall send him in custody to the Court of Session or High Court as the case may be.

(14) When the accused is committed for trial, the Magistrate shall issue an order to such person as may be appointed by the State Government in this behalf, notifying the commitment, and stating the offence in the same form as the charge; and shall send the charge, the record of the inquiry and any weapon or other thing which is to be produced in evidence, to the Court of Session or where the commitment is made to the High Court, to the Clerk of the State or other officer appointed in this behalf by the High Court.

(15) When the commitment is made to the High Court and any part of the record is not in English, an English translation of such part shall be forwarded with the record.

(2) If, upon consideration of all the documents referred to in section 173 and making such examination, if any, of the accused as the Magistrate thinks necessary and after giving the prosecution and the accused an opportunity of being heard, the Magistrate considers the charge against the accused to be groundless, he shall discharge him.

(3) If, upon such documents being considered, such examination, if any, being made and the prosecution and the accused being given an opportunity of being heard, the Magistrate is of opinion that there is ground for presuming that the accused has committed an offence triable under this Chapter, which such Magistrate is competent to try, and which, in his opinion, could be adequately punished by him, he shall frame in writing a charge against the accused.

(9) If the accused after he has entered upon his defence, applies to the Magistrate to issue any process for compelling the attendance of any witness for the purpose of examination or cross-examination, or the production of any document or other thing, the Magistrate shall issue such process unless he considers that such application should be refused on the ground that it is made for the purpose of vexation or delay or for defeating the ends of justice. Such ground shall be recorded by him in writing :

Provided that, when the accused has cross-examined or had the opportunity of cross-examining any witness after the charge is framed, the attendance of such witness shall not be compelled under this section, unless the Magistrate is satisfied that it is necessary for the purposes of justice.

(10) The Magistrate may, before summoning any witness on such application under sub-section (9), require that his reasonable expenses incurred in attending for the purpose of the trial be deposited in court.

(11) If, in any case under this section in which a charge has been framed, the Magistrate finds the accused not guilty, he shall record an order of acquittal.

(12) Where in any case under this section, the Magistrate does not proceed in accordance with the provisions of section 349 or section 562, he shall, if he finds the accused guilty, pass sentence upon according to law.

PRESS NOTES.

Imphal, the 16th December, 1955.

No. RH.77/51-A/112.—The following Press notes dated 26-11-55 and 27-11-55 issued by the Government of India, Ministry of Rehabilitation on the subject of 'Payment of Compensation to displaced persons' are republished for general information.

H. R. Singh,
Asstt. Secretary (GIL) to the Govt. of Manipur.

EARLY PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION TO WIDOWS.

In a Press Note dated July 29, 1955 it was announced that widows having verified claims in their own names etc. would be paid cash upto a maximum of Rs. 8,000/- and would be given priority in the matter of payment.

This concession is now being extended to those who became widows subsequent to the filing of compensation applications by their husbands.

Such widows, whether or not their applications were made in their own names, will be given priority in the matter of the payment of compensation.

EXPLOITATION OF SMALL DISPLACED CLAIMANTS.
GOVERNMENT NOT TO RECOGNISE SALE AND PURCHASE OF CLAIMS.
PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION TO BE EXTENDED.

The Government of India have noticed with some concern that the concession which was given to displaced persons with claims who wished to purchase property in the Compensation pool, to associate other claimants with them to make up the amount of their bid, is being abused.

Some persons interested in the purchase of pool property have been including those claimants who are in need of ready cash to part with their claims at prices far below the amount of compensation payable on such claims. The object of the Government in permitting claimants to associate among themselves for the purpose of buying property was to facilitate both the purchase and the sale of such property and to enable genuine buyers to purchase property against claims.

To put an end to exploitation, the Government has decided not to recognise sale and purchase of claims.

Such sale and purchase of claims will not be recognised. However, if claimants wish to combine to purchase property, they would be permitted to do so, but the sale certificate will be made out in the name of all these persons and their shares specified in it according to the amount contributed by each of them either by adjustment of claim or by cash.

To give immediate relief to small claimants, orders have already issued that those claimants whose claims are for Rs. 2,000 or less should be given priority for payment in cash.

Cash payments upto Rs. 8,000 will continue to be made to claimants belonging to needy categories, such as widows, grantees of maintenance allowance and displaced claimants who are suffering from T.B. or cancer or whose dependants are suffering from these diseases, minors, inmates of Homes, recipients of cash doles, etc.

The range of persons to whom early relief should be given by payment of compensation in cash is being further extended.

Instructions have been issued that claimants whose verified claims do not exceed Rs. 10,000 and who are to be paid in cash should have their cases dealt with expeditiously.

It has been decided that to claimants residing in the States of West Bengal, Assam, Tripura, Manipur and Jammu & Kashmir where the evacuee property law does not apply, payments in cash up to Rs. 8,000 should be made.

A similar concession is being extended to claimants who have permanently settled in foreign countries.

The concession of payment in cash will also be available to women who became widows subsequent to the filing of claims by their husbands.

Over 70,000 claimants have already been paid about Rs. 15,00,00,000 in cash, and the administrative machinery has been further strengthened so that the pace of payment will be considerably increased.
